

CME National Student Award Winners

May 16th, 2019. For Immediate Release

Celebrating Media Student Achievement

The Canadian Media Educators is honouring the outstanding work produced by its students and recent graduates. Judging over 140 entries from colleges and universities from across the country wasn't easy. "The judges continue to be impressed and entertained by the quality of the submissions this year," said CME Vice President and Judging Coordinator (Loyalist Film and TV Production, Program Coordinator & Professor) Paul Papadopoulos.

Here is what the judges are saying about this year's winners:

"Relevant, interesting and creative!"

"Content gets to the heart of the story"

"Excellent choice of music and SFX!"

"Very solid show. I enjoyed this piece!"

"Excellent job producing professional coverage!"

"Great direction and shooting!"

"Great concept!"

The CME National Student Awards Program recognizes and rewards the unique combination of creativity and technical excellence demonstrated by students in radio, television/video, photography and animation taught in CME member institutions. There are 12 awards in the video category, 9 audio awards, two video awards and two animation awards. In addition, the best of the best is selected from both the audio and video categories and awarded the President's Award (a cash prize).

About CME: The Canadian Media Educators is dedicated to the professional development of faculty and administrators in Radio, Television, Broadcast Journalism, Photography and Animation and in provincially accredited colleges and universities in Canada.
